Introduction

In Chart's Pedigree, the name McElroy can be traced back a thousand years. One of the proofs that it is a very old name is found in the fact that it belongs to both Ireland and Scotland and is common to both Catholics and Protestants. The McElroy arms are described as follows: On a bend azure, a star of six points between two crescents argent, and in a base a bow and arrow of the second. Crest: A hand, erect, holding a battle axe ppr. Motto: "TRUSTY AND TRUE."

Various books and records are found on one James McElroy, who about 1729 sailed on the vessel "GEORGE AND ANNE" in company with Irvins, McDowells, McCunes, and others, and first settled on the borders of Pennsylvania. Later James McElroy and John Irvine, a Presbyterian minister, moved south and settled in Campbell Co., Va. James had five sons: John, Archibald, Hugh, Samuel and James. Hugh, Samuel and James McElroy married three Irvine sisters.

Our JOHN McELROY does not appear to be the son of the above James, as he was born about 1690. McElroys show up as early as 1659 in Maryland Land Grants. Each immigrant coming to Maryland was entitled to a grant of land. The two McElroys were listed as "transported" which means their passage was paid for by someone else, and usually meant they had to work out their passage from some large land holder. The two McElroys listed were:

ARCHIBALD MUCKELL, Liber 4, Folio 55, transported 1659.
PATRICK MACKLERoy, Liber 18, Folio 137, transported 1674.

There is no proof, but I think the above ARCHIBALD MUCKELL was the grandfather of our John McElroy. The name Archibald was passed on down through the generations, and our Isaac was listed in the 1820 Franklin Co., Tenn. census as ISAAC MUCKLE (the short form of McElroy). In the court records of Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas, the McElroy name is spelled in various ways. JOHN's name is MACKLERoy in the Harford County, Maryland records. Archibald's name is MACKLERoy in his will found in Johnson Co., North Carolina. Avington's name was spelled MACKLERoy in North Carolina, but in Georgia he ran a ferry named MUCKEL'S FERRY. ISAAC's name is spelled MUCKLERoy in Georgia, MUCKLE in 1820 Franklin Co., Tenn. census, and the name is McLERoy in his will. It is said that his daughter, Jane used the name of MUCKLERoy in Miss., yet her name is given as McROY in Mississippi History. All of Isaac's sons who came to Texas used the name MUCKLERoy. Georgia records also show MckLERoy, McELROY, McLERoy.

M c E L R O Y...spelling variants

McElroy in this instance is used for spelling variants such as McLeroy, Muckelroy...etc.

The form McLeroy was first used by this branch of the family by Edward McLeroy (1783-c.after 1850). His father was John McElroy and it is not exactly sure when Edward first used the form McLeroy. He was referred to in a Deed Gift from his grandfather as Edward Snicher McKleroy. This was 1796. He was listed in the 1830 census as McElroy, the 1840 census as McKleroy and the 1850 census as McLeroy. Spelling in many instances in census varies with the census taker.

Edward McLeroy's son Henry used McLeroy in deeds, marriage and other legal documents. However, again census records vary. As far as is known all descendants of Henry McLeroy use the McLeroy form.

McElroys originally came from Scotland, Ireland and present day Northern Ireland (Ulster). The spelling originally in Ireland was Mac Giolla Rua, and in Scotland and Ulster was Mac'Illeruaodh. Other spellings known in Scotland were M'Gilerio, M'Ylroy, Mackgilroy, M'Ilroy. Scottish spellings that were generally used in the United States were McElroy, McLeroy, McIlrie, McIlroy. Reference: The Atlanta Journal and Constitution 10/12/1972.

Research by Mrs. Carmae Massey Smith, 4614 Ivanhoe St., Houston TX 77027 indicates that the likely ancestral home of this branch of McElroys is County Sligo in the ancient Kingdom of Connaught, Ireland.

From Irish Families, by Edward MacLysaght, page 134...

"McELROY, MacGilroy, Kilroy. The name is Mac Giolla Rua, in Irish, i.e. son of the red (haired) youth. The sept (clan) originated in County Fermanagh where the place name Ballymackilroy is found: their territory was on the east side of Lough Erne. There is another Ballymackilroy in County Tyrone and another in County Antrim. In the seventeenth century census (1659) the name is recorded as very numerous in County Fermanagh and also in County Leitrim-the latter as MacGilleroy.

It is still numerous in the same areas, but in Connacht the modern spelling is often Kilroy or Gilroy, without the Mac***"

Note: Counties Fermanagh, Tyrone and Antrim are in Ulster and Counties Sligo and Leitrim border, with both being in Ireland. Leitrim having a border common with County Fermanagh, Ulster.

GENERATION I - JOHN MACKLERoy

JOHN McELROY, born ca 1690; married before 1713, Frances _____
The birth dates of their children are recorded on microfilm in the Hall of Records, Annapolis, Harford County, Maryland 1681-1799, St.
George's Parish Register of Harford Co., Maryland, pgs 52 & 53.

Children of John and Frances McElroy were:

1. Rachel, born 7 August 1713; married Avention Phelps. See attached deed from Hall of Records, Annapolis, Baltimore County, Maryland, - Liber HWS #1A, Folio 519-520. Avention and Rachel (McElroy) Phelps went on to North Carolina with her brothers, and later on to Georgia with their relatives.
2. John, born 5 December 1715; died 1760 in Johnson Co., N.C. (now part of Wake County); married Rebecca _____ and had the following children:
  - i. John, born 1743-55; died 1794; married Mary.
  - ii. James
  - iii. William, died in the Revolution.
  - iv. Elizabeth
  - v. Mary
  - vi. Rachel
  - vii. Henry, died 1806; married Peletiah. Named a daughter Frances.
3. William, born 23 December 1717; died ca 1800 in Georgia; married Ghaskey. Will in Wilkes Co., Ga., dated 10-15-1796; recorded 12-24-1798.

Children:

  - i. Henry (crippled).
  - ii. John, died 1803 in Georgia; married 1st Rebecca Jones in 1762; m. 2nd Sarah _____. Named a daughter Rachel.
  - iii. Anna, born 1751; married Richard Hartsfield.
  - iv. Ghaskey, married 1st Isaac Dawson; m. 2nd William Dawson.
  - v. Reuben, born 1759; lived in Wake Co., N.C.; died 12 February 1820 in Jones County, Ga.; married Christiana Johnson, April 1776, in Wake Co., N.C. (see Rev. Pension - North Carolina W5, 360).
  - vi. James, born 1761; died 1841 in Alabama; married 1st Lucy; m. 2nd Sarah McClendon.
  - vii. Isaac, born 1763; died 1850 in Alabama; married Sarah. Note: This is the one referred to as the Big Creek Isaac, and the one who caused me so much trouble. He was a cousin of our Isaac of Oglethorpe Co., Ga., and Franklin Co., Tenn. In those days, Junior and Senior meant an elder man and a younger man. In this case, Isaac McElroy, Sr. of the tax records was Isaac, Jr's cousin and not his father, as I thought for many years. Will in Book 1, page 533, dated 17 May 1850, Sumpter Co., Ala.

4. Archibald, born 13 February 1719; died 1760, by December, in Johnson Co., N.C.; married Catherine (Simpson?). Will is recorded in Johnson County (now Wake) North Carolina, dated 5 December 1760. Children were:
- i. Archibald; died 1760 in Johnson Co., N.C., married Sarah Lynn. Had one child, Micajah. Lived in Lincoln Co., Ga.
  - ii. Avington (Aventon), born ca 1750; died ca. 1798 in Oglethorpe Co., Ga; married 7 March 1770, Sarah Dawson, daughter of William and Martha Dawson of Johnson Co., N.C.
  - iii. John.
  - iv. Andrew, born 1740-50; died in Huntville, Madison Co., Alabama, 16 February 1825; married 1st Johanna Handcock; m. 2nd Phoebe Meadows, 4 May 1817 (Rev. Pension Records - North Carolina R.6.783).
  - v. Frances, married John B. Shaw in 1771.
  - vi. Sally.

10.JOHN McELROY (various spelling)
b.circa 1690 Cecil County MD
d.after 1732

While there is no actual proof, it appears logical that Archibald Muckle, Liber 4, Folio 55, transported to Maryland 1659 was the grandfather of 10.JOHN McELROY.

Transported means that he was bound out for a period of time in payment for passage. At the end of servitude, land was usually granted.

Deeds as late as 1732 place 10.JOHN McELROY in Baltimore County MD.

After moving from Maryland lived in Craven, Johnson and Wake Counties in North Carolina. Records show him living in Craven County NC in November of 1744 (3 whites, no slaves). Later moved to Wilkes County Georgia, owning property on Clarke Creek. Recorded information would indicate that after making will and Deed of Gift to his grandchildren by his son 8. John McElroy III, and sale of property in Wilkes County moved to Oglethorpe County with said son 8. John McElroy III. Sale of property was to James McKleroy, another of his sons and was for 500 acres in 1798.

b. 1807 Oglethorpe County Georgia
d. 1853, after October 1, Fayette County GA
buried Old Tucker Place,
Jonesboro-Lovejoy area, Clayton Co. GA

Son of 7. Edward and 7. Mary "Polly" McLeroy.
Reference: Hartsfields of America by Nell Clover. 5. Martha Frances McLeroy Travis Allen, writing in Clayton County News and Farmer, and in her notes, refers to grandfather 7. Edward McLeroy and to father 6.
Henry McLeroy.

Henry McLeroy owned and operated a cotton plantation of over 1200 acres on present day Tara Road in Clayton County (then part of Fayette County GA). He completed a home that was partially built and later sold it to Philip Fitzgerald, great-grandfather of Margaret Mitchell, author of Gone With the Wind. Philip Fitzgerald made additional changes, especially after the Civil War. Philip Fitzgerald, born in Ireland, had lived in Fayette County several years before purchasing the property. The sale of 8/9/1853 is recorded in Fayette County Superior Court Book G 1851-1857 page
399. The price was $4,800. plus a tract of land in Florida.

Before the Macon and Western Rail Road (now Central of Georgia) came thru Jonesboro to join the Western and Atlantic and the Georgia Rail Roads in Atlanta, planters would carry cotton and other farm products to Savannah caravan wagon style.

After selling their products, or consigning to export merchants merchants they would purchase for return such items as needles, sugar, spices, coffee, etc. not produced on self-contained plantations of central Georgia in the 1840's. Much of the mill work for the home was brought from Savannah and Milledgeville by mule or horse caravan.

After visiting the Florida agreeage for inspection, Henry McLeroy caught fever and died in the fall of 1853. Made will on death bed October 1 1853. Directed executor of will, Millegan Bert DeVaughn (his son-in-law) to sell the then occupied property and buy new land for widow; to provide funds for the education of minor children.

The will also directed that all slaves, except seven (these seven were named) be sold on the block. His widow, provided she did not remarry was to receive $1500. for the next two Christmases besides immediately receiving $3000. cash. Unmarried children were to receive $1200. each to compensate for earlier gifts to married children. Will recorded Fayette Co. GA Book A pages 122, 123 & 124.

Born on a plantation in Fayette County and at an early age moved to a new location (this plantation later sold to Philip Fitzgerald great-grandfather of Margaret Mitchell).

After the death of her father in 1853 her mother purchased a new farm and assumed active management.

Was very active socially in and around Jonesboro. In order to discourage an early love affair with Benjamin Marlin Travis her mother sent her away to Forsyth Georgia to attend Forsyth Female Institute (later Bessie Tift College and presently Tift College). At that time it was known as a finishing school for daughters of plantation owners. This action failed to discourage the love affair and she climbed out the 2nd story window one night and eloped with the awaiting Benjamin Travis. She was 17 at the time of marriage.

However, her mother was quick to forgive and presented the young couple with farm, house, live stock and implements as a wedding present.

1860 Clayton County census shows B. M. Travis age 26 and wife M. F. Travis age 18 with real estate valued at $1600. and personal property listed at $1000...this represents the gift referred to above.

Martha Frances McLeroy Travis Allen wrote under the authorship of "Grandma Fannie Allen" a newspaper column for the Clayton County News and Farmer.

These articles started around 1928 and continued until shortly before her death in 1934.

These article dealt principally with life on the plantation before the Civil War and news about families in the Jonesboro area in the late 19th century.

She kept up an extensive correspondence with old friends and relatives.

Dr. Wiley W. Hartsfield died Pike Co. AL 1857; his death witnessed by Benj. M. Hartsfield. John H. Hartsfield was living in Pike Co. 1830 and in Chambers Co. AL 1857.
The Hartsfield book also shows a daughter Elizabeth and this is probably in error. Eliza b. 1821 (not Elizabeth)
m. James Bottoms was daughter of James and Nancy Olive Hartsfield.

US Census Record

Mrs. Robert E. Mitchell, genealogist, referring to the 1820 Jasper County Census, "It is possible that when the census taker came, Wiley, the son, gave his name and it was an error of the census taker - primarily because we have never run into Wiley Hartsfield (of age indicated) again. I am giving the census record, because I definitely believe it belongs to Warren Hartsfield."

1820 Jasper County GA (see notation above) Wiley(Warren)Hartsfield

- 1 m 40/50 b.1780-1794 This would fit Warren Hartsfield
- 1 m 10/16 b.1804-1810 This would fit John H. Hartsfield
- 3 m - /10 b.1810-1820 This would fit Benj. and Wiley Hartsfield
- 1 f 26/45 b.1775-1794 This would fit Elizabeth Hartsfield

Martha Hartsfield, f, b.1814 and should be in the f -/10 bracket is not listed, but there is 1 m unaccounted for above. Could have been a child that died or Martha could have been listed m.

It is known that Warren Hartsfield was in Jasper County in 1820 and this is the only census that could possibly fit.

8.CAPT. JOHN HOLMES...Revolutionary Soldier
b.1747 Caroline County Virginia
d.1803 Wilkes County Georgia

There are numerous contradictions on the life and activities of John Holmes. I will herein record what is most widely accepted by DAR applications, and other references on record at the Georgia Department of Archives and History. References regarding disagreements are either attached, or referred to, for further study.

He came to the Carolinas from Virginia, and then to Georgia. The South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine, Issue I, page 270 shows that he was in Georgia as early as 1760. Wilkes County Georgia records prove that he was in Georgia (Wilkes County) by 1784. Other references indicate that he was licensed to teach English and Latin in Savannah in 1766 by Sir James Wright, Governor of the Colony of Georgia.

He was appointed Chaplain in General Lachlin McIntosh's 1st Georgia Regiment, 2/16/1776. Prior to that he was Rector of Begoria Church in Burke County. Was one of the founders of the Georgia Chapter of The Society of the Cincinnati.

References: Early Records of Wilkes County, Davidson, Volume I page 75 refers to will signed 9/4/1802, -probated 3/8/1803.

Early Records of Wilkes County, Davidson, Volume II pages 239 & 240 show settlement of estate in 1806. This settlement date may account for the fact that some records show the death date as 1806.

8.CAPT. JOHN HOLMES...continued

In addition to documents previously referred to, there are numerous DAR lineage records for reference.

Issue: Note: Items underlined are direct quotes from McCall's...others are from different sources.

Apsylla, b. 1770 d. 1815 m. 1789 Pitt Milner, son of John Milner Revolutionary Soldier. NC shown on DAR 431867 as birthplace.

Penelope, b. 1773 m. Benjamin Milner, son of Pitt Milner. If this is correct she was probably 20 or 25 years older than her husband. Benjamin could have been the brother of Pitt Milner.

Mary m. 1s. Ezekiel B. Parks. m. 2nd Elisha Kendall.

Josiah B. DAR 431867 shows birth as 1788 NC and marriage to Amelia Williams. DAR 597673 lists Josiah 1st suggesting that he was the eldest child, therefore being born before 1770.

Note: Evidently two Josiah B. Holmes living at about the same time in the same general area. The Hartsfields of America by Hartsfield and Clover, page 51 lists Josiah B. Holmes as husband of Sarah Hartsfield, the first child of Godfrey and Sarah Sallie Simms Hartsfield, and sister of 7.ELIZABETH who married 7. WARREN HARTSFIELD.

John Jr. m. Hannah Thomas

James C. b. 4/24/1785 m. 1st Rebecca Pope. m. 2nd Mary Hale

Moses

Isaac. Listed by DAR 431867, but not found in any other references by me. If such child existed he evidently died in infancy.

7.ELIZABETH. b. 1788 Wilkes County GA m. 1805 Jasper County GA 7. WARREN HARTSFIELD.

There are conflicting dates as to the birth of Elizabeth born GA and Josiah as shown by some as North Carolina 1788. Bounty Land Application 254709 on file in the National Archives, Washington DC shows birth date of Elizabeth Holmes Hartsfield as 1788, birth place Georgia, her maiden name and marriage date by Rev. Ben Milner (probably her brother-in-law, husband of Penelope. Shown in 1850 Henry County Census as age 62 and birth place GA. The Will of John Holmes makes grants to Elizabeth and Moses upon reaching majority, indicating that the other children were older. John Holmes was involved in the appraisal of property in Wilkes County in 1786 (DAR Historical Collections Vol II (#369) Carnegie Library, Atlanta). Two John Holmes are shown in the 1790 NC census and the description does not seem to fit this John Holmes.

6. CAPT. JOHN HOLMES... Revolutionary Soldier... continued

Roster Revolutionary Soldiers in Georgia Volume III, McCall. Page 118

JOHN HOLMES, b. Caroline Co., Va., 1747; came to the Carolinas, then Ga.; d. Wilkes Co., Ga., 1806. Served in Ga. Militia. Received grant of land in St. Andrew's Parish, Ga., and was licensed to teach English and Latin at Savannah, Ga. Rector of Burke Co., Ga., Church, 1776, and on Feb. 16, 1776 was appointed Chaplain of 1st Ga. Reg. He married 1767, Chloe Bentley (1747-1813) (dau. of WILLIAM BENTLEY, b. Fairfax, Va.; d. DeKalb Co., Ga., 1802. Served as Lieut., then Capt. Received land grant for services. Married Mary Elliott).

Children:

1. Apsylla (1770-1815); mar. 1789, Pitt Milner (son of JOHN MILNER, a REV. SOLDIER, and his wife Elizabeth Godwin).
2. Penelope, mar. Benjamin Milner (son of Pitt Milner).
3. Mary, mar. (1) — Parks; (2) Elisha Kendall.
4. Elizabeth.
5. Josiah.
6. John, Jr.
7. James.
8. Moses.

Note: information referring to place of death of William Bentley is in error. DeKalb County was not created until 1822. A land grant in 1784 in Wilkes County and other Wilkes County GA references would indicate the place of death as Wilkes Co. GA. In addition, his daughter and son-in-law John Holmes were living in Wilkes Co. GA 1802.

Note: information as to the date of death of John Holmes is in error. The date of 1806 shown is probably the result of an estate settlement reference: Davidson's Wilkes County Volume II pages 239 & 240. All DAR papers that I have seen show the death date as 1803.

Davidson's Wilkes County Volume I page 75 shows will dated 9/4/1802 and probated 3/8/1803, Wilkes County Georgia. The settlement refers to children: Apsylla Milner, Penelope Milner, Mary Parks, Josiah, John, James (called oldest), Moses and Elizabeth. The will stipulates settlements for Elizabeth and Moses upon reaching majority, indicating that all other children were over 21.

DAR Patriot Index p 339 shows John Holmes b.c. 1735 d.p. 9/4/1802 (the date of the will) and married to Chloe Bentley.

Note: The reference that Penelope Holmes married Benjamin Milner son of Pitt Milner is evidently in error. If this is correct she would be about 25 years older than her husband, who would also be her nephew! History of Jones County Georgia page 654 shows Pitt Milner and Rev. Benjamin Milner, brothers, and sons of Capt. John Milner a Revolutionary Soldier.

Bounty Land Application 254709 (by widow of soldier War 1812) shows that Elizabeth Holmes was married to Warren Hartsfield by Rev. Ben Milner, evidently her brother-in-law. Rev. Benjamin Milner was probably a Primitive Baptist Preacher.

Information for this chart was obtained from THE GENEALOGY OF THE SIMS FAMILY by Henry Upson Sims, LL. D. A copy of this book is in the Little Rock Arkansas Public Library.

The McLERoy-HARTSFIELD family connection

McElroy in this instance is used for spelling variants such as McLeroy, Muckelroy, McKleroy...etc. The form McLeroy was first used by this branch of the family by Edward Snicher McLeroy, although it had been used previously by some of his relations. It is not sure when first used. A deed gift of 9.William McKleroy lists his grandson as Edward Snicher McKleroy. Frequently spelling will vary within the same document. He is listed in the 1830 census as McElroy; the 1840 census as McKleroy and the 1850 census as McLeroy. Spelling also varies with the census taker. Numerous intermarriages between the Hartsfield and McElroy families took place from the time the two moved at about the same times from Maryland to North Carolina to Georgia. This chart will concern itself principally with that branch of the family using the McLeroy style of spelling and Henry McLeroy who married into the Hartsfield family in 1829.

List of children not complete. Some references show Elizabeth and Mary, but these probably belong to another family

Note on 8. Capt. John Holmes: There were two John Holmes residing in Wilkes County GA about the same time. Therefore, references on the two are often confusing. The will of 8. Capt. John Holmes leaves no doubt that 7. Elizabeth was his daughter (see reference in his will regarding her reaching majority). Bounty Land Application #254709 indicates birth place of 7. Elizabeth as GA; m. by Rev. Ben Milner.
