MUNDY

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Rast Mundy of Jonesboro, 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 28, at Tara Garden Chapel. Dr. Charles Q. Carter officiating, interment, Jonesboro City Cemetery. Family will receive friends 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home. Mrs. Mundy was the widow of the late Judge J. Ellis Mundy who served for 35 years in the United States Court of Atlanta. They married 71 years ago in 1920. The Judge passed away June 23, 1985. They both joined the Jonesboro First Baptist Church the year they married 71 years ago. He soon became a Deacon and she was a member of the Love Long Women's Missionary Union. She was also the oldest member of the Jonesboro First Baptist Church. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Delorese Mundy Adamson, Jonesboro; grandson, Clifford Ellis Shanks. Her only son, Jo-Ellis Mundy, was killed in a bus wreck in April, 1947. She also has nieces and nephews surviving. Thomas L. Scroggs, Tara Garden Chapel, Jonesboro, 471-7171.

Aunt Jo died in Clayton County (Georgia) Hospital, before midnight, Sunday May 26. She had been hospitalized several days, with uremic poisoning—the kidneys had failed. We think she did not suffer great pain; she became speechless, apparently but smiled at Delorese and Cliff when they last saw her Sunday evening. She is buried close to Uncle Ellis's and Joe-Ellis's (Peter's) graves in Jonesboro.
